C40
CITIES

"The mission of C40 is to spot world-leading best practice in climate action by individual cities and use it to inspire others. Many of these best practices begin as ideas in a city's climate action plan "

Mark Watts, Executive Director of C40

-It might not be everyone's idea of entertainment, but while my fellow passengers were enjoying films on a long journey earlier this month, I was transfixed by the Climate and Energy Strategy for Oslo, a contender as the most impressive example of the genre anywhere in the world, and which deserves to be shared far and wide.*

Hva er innovasjon i C40 sammenheng?

- Hårete mål
- Tidspress – «sense of urgency»
- Skape ansvar: Det er vi, her og nå som må gjøre det
- Vitenskapelig metode – oppfølging
- Kopier av hverandre
- Impact first
- Påvirke markedskreftene

The screenshot shows a webpage with a dark background image of a city skyline at night, featuring a Ferris wheel. The main title is "1.5°C: Aligning New York City with the Paris Climate Agreement". Above the title, it says "Case Studies and Best Practice Examples" and "September 2017". Below the title, there are three buttons: "Buildings and Construction", "Climate Action Planning", and "Spotlight On: 1.5C Cities". In the top right corner, there is a "LOGIN/SIGN UP TO SAVE" button and a "0" next to a thumbs-up icon. On the right side, there is a vertical "HELP" button. At the bottom, there is a teal bar with the text: "Author(s): New York City", "Featured Region(s): North America", and "Featured Cities: New York".
